RE: JAMES ABRAHAM, et al. v. RICHARD AQUILONE, JR.
11-cv-5947 (PKC)
In The Matter of the Complaint of NYWT SHARK LLC et al
11-CV-00370 (SAS)

Dear Judge Castel:

We are counsel for NYWT Shark LLC and NYWT Circle Line d/b/a Circle Line Downtown, owners and operators of the motor vessel SHARK, who were recently served with a Third-Party Complaint filed by Defendant Richard Aquilone, Jr. We take this opportunity to advise Your Honor of our previous filing, pursuant to 46 U.S.C. §30505, and Judge Shira Scheindlin's prior order dated April 13, 2011 attached hereto as Enclosure "A". We further request permission to attend the preliminary conference scheduled in this matter for November 28, 2011, on a without prejudice basis. We have accepted Defendant Aquilone's request to waive formal service pursuant to Rule 4, but a response is not due until January 4, 2011.

Judge Scheindlin's order clearly provides that Plaintiffs herein were barred and precluded from filing any claims in any proceeding against the SHARK interests. Despite this, Defendant Aquilone filed a Third-Party Complaint demanding that the SHARK interests directly answer

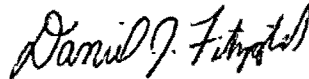

377060.1

Counsel for defendant Aquilone shall respond by fax to Chambers by November 22, 2011, 5 P.M.
Counsel for NYWT Shark LLC and NYWT Circle Line are welcome to attend the November 28 conference consistent with their position asserted in the letter of November 17.

the Complaint of Plaintiffs. Under the circumstances presented, Mr. Aquilone's attempt to place the SHARK interests in a position when they could be held directly liable to plaintiffs is clearly improper. Defendant Aquilone further incorrectly asserts a cause of action for contribution which has not accrued as Mr. Aquilone has not paid, or had any judgment entered against him, for more than his share of damages. At this point, the SHARK interests seek to clarify whether it is necessary to reopen the action previously filed before Judge Scheindlin, (11 CV-00370), in order to preserve all of the benefits, rights and elections of the prior filing.

Due to these circumstances, we request permission to attend the pre-trial conference on a without prejudice basis and thank the Court in advance for considering the foregoing.

Respectfully submitted,
FREEHILL HOGAN & MAHAR, LLP
